

AutoFlo Model 40 and 40-S Home Comfort Humidifiers

Responsible performance with homeowner designed service simplicity.

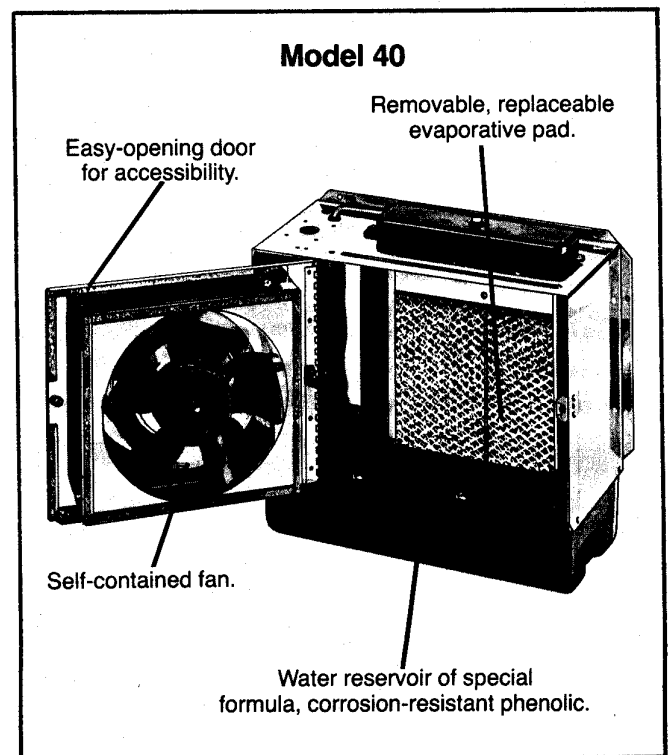

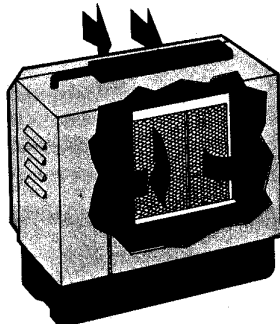

Scientifically Designed to Give Low-Cost Comfort.

Designed and quality constructed for maximum efficiency. Economical to install . . . dependable in operation. Constructed of corrosion-resistant stainless steel. Requires little or no service other than simple periodic cleaning and changing of the evaporator pad annually. Adjustable float control. No drain connections required. The reservoir tray is molded of a special formula plastic for life-time use. It's removable for easy cleaning.

AutoFlo Humidifiers Work. Here's How.

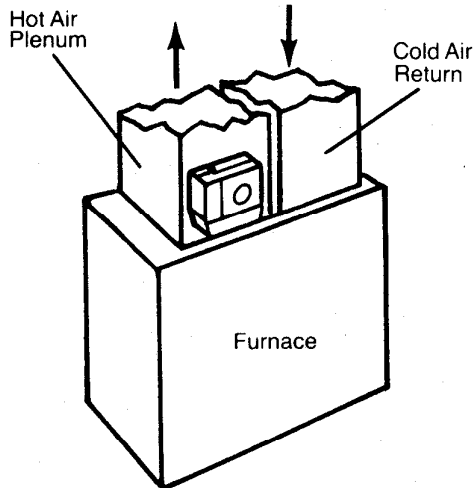

Model 40 with Water Saver Design

Recirculating pump type humidifier. Design uses the forced-air evaporative principle to provide maximum humidity. Self-contained fan automatically provides high-rate air movement over full evaporator pad surface. Water is pumped continuously over the evaporator pad; excess water drains back into the reservoir and is recirculated, minimizing the use of water. (For extremely hard water areas AutoFlo recommends our drain-type model—40-S.)

With any forced air furnace, the AutoFlo Model 40 is all you need.
